Hot Seat

- First, split your class into different teams (two is best, but if you have a large class, any number could be used).
- Sit the students facing the board.
- Then take an empty chair - one for each team - and put it at the front of the class, facing the team members. These chairs are the 'hot seats'.
- Then get one member from each team to come up and sit in that chair, so they are facing their team-mates and have their back to the board.
- Take the first word from the Task 1 and write it clearly on the board.
- The aim of the game is for the students in the teams to show it (point at something purple, act out "birthday") to their team mate who is in the hot seat - that person can't see the word!
- The student in the hot seat looks at their team mates and tries to guess the word.
- The first hot seat student to say the word wins a point for their team.
- Then change the students over, with a new member of each team taking their place in their team's hot seat.
- Then write the next word...
