1Read. How does Bert open the box?

Four Boxes

Look, look on the floor.

How many are there, only four?

I wasn't sure. There were four beautiful boxes on the floor.

Why were they there? What were they for?

One green, one blue, one purple, the other red.

We look at each other until one says:

'Let's open one box.'

But the boxes are all closed. How to open them we do not know.

Then we look at Bert and hold up a key.

'Happy birthday, Bert. Open up and see.'
