

6

The world around us

1 Read and choose the correct sentence.

- a I was tired because I went to bed.
b I went to bed because I was tired.
- a I went swimming because the water was warm.
b The water was warm because I went swimming.
- a She went home, so it started to rain.
b It started to rain, so she went home.
- a I didn't see the hole, so I fell over.
b I fell over, so I didn't see the hole.

2 Join the two sentences. Use because, so, and, but.

- 1 I was wet. It was raining.

I was wet because it was raining _____.

- 2 I took an umbrella. It was raining.

_____.

- 3 My umbrella broke. I got wet.

_____.

4 It was sunny. It was cold.

_____.

5 I had an umbrella. I got wet.

_____.

3 Read, add two commas.

1 I looked in my backpack but I didn't see my keys.

2 We went to a café and had a juice.

3 I asked my teacher a question because I didn't understand the homework.

4 I was covered in mud so I had a shower.

4 Think and answer.

1 Why do you go to school?

Because _____.

2 What are your two favourite flavours of ice cream?

My favourite flavours of ice cream are _____ and _____.

3 Why do you wear shoes?

I wear shoes, so _____.