Reading Worksheet

6 The world around us

1 Read and say what words Rosie is trying to say. Then write.

> S-s-s...arts, no, no, no.
> Stirs, no, no. Stores...

The horse that could speak

Rosie was a very special horse. Yes, she liked to eat grass, and run, but Rosie was special because she could speak. She could say the word 'horse', of course! When she saw wind and rain she called out: 'stooorm!' When she ate, she looked at her food and said: 'cooorn!'
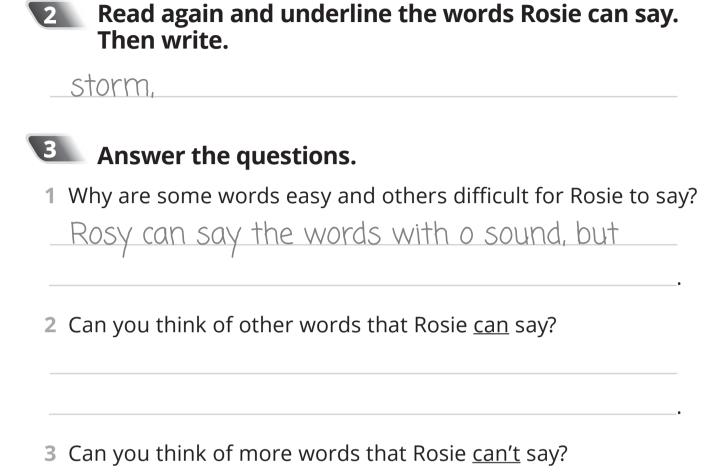

But there were some words that were very difficult. Every morning, she tried to say 'good morning...f-f-f-f-irmer...ormer...ermer' but she couldn't do it. Every day she went to work and she tried to pull the: 'crat...court...cot,' but she couldn't do it. She looked at the sky every night and thought, 'The s-s-s...arts...stirs...stores are beautiful.'

Poor Rosie, a very clever horse, a horse that could speak but a horse that couldn't say: _____, _____, _____.

Quick Minds 4

Reading Worksheet

Name: _____

Grade: _____

2 Read again and underline the words Rosie can say. Then write.

storm, _____

3 Answer the questions.

1 Why are some words easy and others difficult for Rosie to say?

Rosy can say the words with o sound, but _____
_____ .

2 Can you think of other words that Rosie can say?

_____
_____ .

3 Can you think of more words that Rosie can't say?

_____
_____ .

4 Which words are difficult for you to read or say?

_____
_____ .

Quick Minds 4