

1 My Week

1 Read. What is Lucy going to do after dinner?

I like sending my dad text messages, he never understands. He always asks me to explain. Here's an example from the other day:

Do you want me to take you in the car?

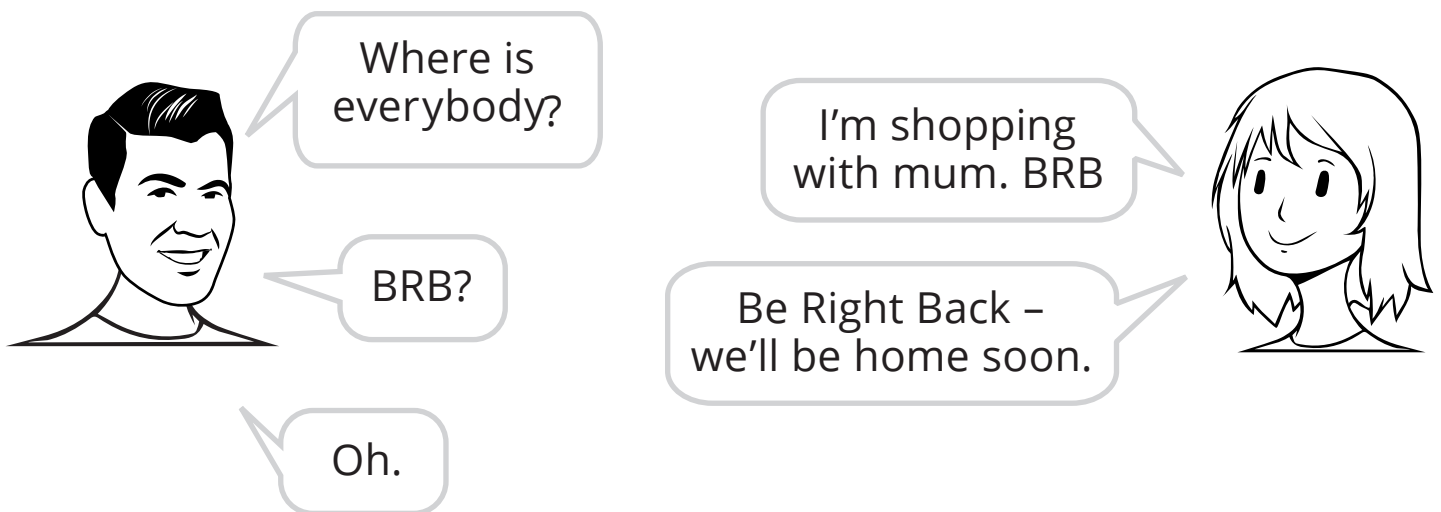

No, DW, I'll get the bus.

What does DW mean?

Don't worry.

Oh.

Or the other day when he arrived and there was no one at home.

Where is everybody?

I'm shopping with mum. BRB

BRB?

Be Right Back - we'll be home soon.

Oh.

Yesterday, I saw this message stuck on my bedroom door:

Go downstairs ASAP.

I didn't understand.

'ASAP?' I asked myself as I walked slowly down the stairs. As I sat down at the table to eat my dinner, I asked dad: 'What does ASAP mean?'

'As Soon As Possible,' he said. 'But you were too slow, that means you have to do the washing up.'

'Very funny, Dad,' I said.

2 Answer the question.

1 Does Lucy like sending her dad messages?

2 Does Lucy's dad always understand her messages?

3 Choose the correct answer.

1 What does BRB mean?

a Please wait for me. b Back soon. c I'm late.

2 When do you use ASAP?

a I have a problem. b I don't have a problem.