

9

At the seaside

1 Read. Does Ben want to go to the seaside?

Are we there yet?

My little brother, Ben, is only four. But he asks a lot of questions...

'Why are you packing a suitcase?' Ben asks.

'Because we're going on holiday,' I answer.

'Why are you putting Teddy in the suitcase?' he asks.

'Because you can't sleep without Teddy,' I say.

'Why are you putting the suitcase in the car?'

'Because we're travelling by car.'

'Where are we going?'

'To the seaside.'

'What are we going to do?' Ben asks.

'We're going to swim and play.' I say.

'Are we going to eat ice cream?'

'Yes, we are.'

'Are we there yet?'

'Not yet.'

'Here we are,' I said. I looked at my little brother, but his eyes were closed, he was fast asleep!

2 Don't look at the text. Can you remember? Answer.

1 Where is the Teddy Bear?

2 Why does Ben need the Teddy Bear?

3 How are they going to go to the seaside?

4 Write two things they are going to do at the seaside.

a _____ b _____

3 Write the missing, unstressed, words.

1 Why _____ you putting _____ suitcase _____ car?

2 Where _____ going?

3 What _____ going _____ do?

4 Why _____ packing _____ suitcase?

5 Why _____ putting Teddy _____ _____ suitcase?