no one/ nobody

2 Yesterday (0) something strange happened to us. We found an old house in the woods and saw a mysterious room there. It appeared from (1) nowhere. There was (2) no one in it. But there were different things (3) everywhere – some toys on the floor, a mirror and a candle on the table, beautiful pictures on the wall. (4) Everything was old, but looked new. We were very surprised and didn't say (5) anything. (6) Everyone wanted to take photos of the room, but the phone was out of power. Then suddenly the room began to disappear. Soon there was (7) nothing to see. But (8) everyone was glad to leave this strange place.

3 1 Did you meet anyone at the party?
2 I love this place! There are books everywhere.
3 Hello, is anyone here?
4 I didn't eat anything because I wasn't hungry.
5 Donna didn't tell anyone about it.
6 Let's do something to improve the situation.
7 They had nowhere to stay so we invited them to our place.
8 It's late, don't go anywhere.

4 This is my friend's room. There's (0) something special about it. It's modern, bright and it has lots of space.
My friend doesn't put (1) anything on her bed except for some cushions. There are drawers where she keeps (2) everything she needs. There is (3) nothing under her table because she's a very tidy person. There are textbooks and books (4) everywhere in her room because she likes reading. She sometimes removes (5) everything from the bookshelves to clean them. She doesn't ask anyone to help her. There's (6) no one in her room right now. (7) Everyone is in the living room. They're watching TV.

5 1 They didn't understand anything.
2 She wrote something but then deleted it.
3 Did you go anywhere at the weekend?
4 There's nothing in this cupboard. It's empty.
5 We saw someone outside the house. I think it was Sam.
6 What a beautiful day! Everyone is outside playing basketball.
7 They live somewhere near here.
8 I phoned her several times but no one answered.

- 6 1 The match was really exciting, everyone enjoyed it.
 2 It was dark outside and we couldn't see anything.
 3 He told her everything he knew about the accident.
 4 Olivia said something but we heard nothing because of the noise.
 5 I can't find my keys anywhere.
 6 Is there anything interesting on TV?
 7 You can find these shops everywhere in Europe.

- 7 1 We have nothing here. We don't have anything here.
 2 They invited no one to the meeting. They didn't invite anyone to the meeting.
 3 We saw nothing strange there. We didn't see anything strange there.
 4 Jess goes nowhere with her older sister. Jess doesn't go anywhere with her older sister.
 5 She asked no one to show her the way. She didn't ask anyone to show her the way.
 6 Mike did nothing to help us. Mike didn't do anything to help us.
 7 I have nowhere to stay. I don't have anywhere to stay.
 8 There was no one knocking at the door. There wasn't anyone knocking at the door.

- 8 2.
Vicky: Did you buy a present for Sally yesterday?

James: No, I didn't. I wanted to buy her (1) something special, but I didn't find (2) anything. Let's go shopping together today.

3.

Jo: Are you going (3) anywhere today?

Rika: No, I need to find my English textbook with my notes. (4) No one / Nobody knows where it is. But I'm sure it's (5) somewhere in the house.

4.

Sam: When we were in Rome, I got lost because I knew (6) nothing about the place.

Will: Did you ask (7) anyone for help?

Sam: Yes, luckily, I found (8) someone who spoke English and showed me the way to the hotel.

5.

Mum: Don't worry. (9) Everyone makes mistakes. (10) No one / Nobody is perfect.

Jessica: I know, (11) everything is fine, I'm not upset.

- 2 All boys and girls in the UK (0) have to go to school until the age of 16. There are state schools and independent schools. If you choose a state school, you (1) don't have to pay for it. Pupils have to wear a uniform. Sometimes boys and girls (2) have to wear a school tie. In Northern Ireland at the age of 11 you (3) have to take a test. If you fail it, you can't study where you want to. In Scotland you (4) don't have to take such a test. In secondary school pupils (5) have to learn at least one foreign language. Each UK school has its own timetable; lessons may last 35, 45 or 60 minutes. Children (6) have to study English, maths, history, geography and science. For each subject a pupil (7) has to attend classes for about 5 hours a week. They also (8) have to spend time doing Physical Education or Sport every week. School term dates are different across the UK. For example, in Scotland children (9) have to start school in August.

The rules are quite strict. If a pupil breaks a rule, they (10) have to stay at school for some time after classes. It is called "detention".
