Have you ever been to a 3D art museum? I visited the one in Ho Chi Minh in Vietnam. It is quite ¹*(remarkable)* / controversial because it's very different to traditional art museums. It's not like a ²*contemporary* / conventional art museum because you can touch the pictures, but also, when you stand in the right place, you appear as part of the painting. There are some ³*stunning* / abstract countryside scenes of mountains and rivers – so beautiful – alongside very ⁴*dramatic* / controversial pictures of fighting dinosaurs! In one rather ⁵*classic* / humorous scene you can even become the fairy Tinker Bell trapped in a jar. There is also an area with ⁶*conventional* / bizarre rooms where floors appear sloped or chairs seem huge. This is one museum that is suitable for everyone.
