

1a Match the type of conditional (0, 1, 2 or 3) to its correct use (A, B, C or D).

- |                      |         |                                                          |
|----------------------|---------|----------------------------------------------------------|
| 0 Zero conditional   | ..... D | A unlikely situations in the present/future              |
| 1 First conditional  | .....   | B likely events in the future                            |
| 2 Second conditional | ..... C | imaginary results of past situations that never happened |
| 3 Third conditional  | ..... D | general truths                                           |

1b Now read the sentences (1–5) and write the type of conditional they are an example of (0, 1, 2 or 3).

- If you use this product regularly, you will have smooth, silky hair. 1
- If that advert hadn't appeared on my web browser, I wouldn't have clicked on it. ....
- Many music festivals wouldn't take place if they weren't sponsored by big corporations. ....
- I'll buy it if I get paid tomorrow. ....
- If a football team wears a sponsored kit, millions of people see it. ....

2 Choose the correct option to complete the sentences and write the type of conditional they are an example of (0, 1, 2 or 3).

- If today was Sunday, I didn't have / wouldn't have to work. 2
- I hadn't bought / wouldn't have bought those trainers if they hadn't been on offer. ....
- I have a problem. If I see a new product, I want / wanted to buy it immediately. ....
- If we are / were not too busy next week, I'll give you a ring. ....
- How would you feel if your face appeared / appears in a TV ad? ....
- If you hadn't helped / wouldn't help me, I never would have managed to finish on time. ....
- I usually click on 'skip ad' when an advert will come / comes on. ....
- What will she do if she doesn't get / wouldn't get into that university? ....

3 Cross out the mistakes in the sentences. Write the correct sentences.

-  1 If you get hungry later, ~~are you buying~~ a sandwich?
If you get hungry later, will you buy a sandwich?
- 2 I think we would lose if you hadn't scored that goal.
- 3 If Chris wouldn't work at the weekends, he would see his friends more often.
.....

- 4 If you put your thumb here, the phone is unlocking itself.
.....
- 5 If she had put on more suncream, she doesn't get so burned.
.....
- 6 When we will arrive, I will send you a message.
.....

4 Look at the type of conditional (0, 1, 2 or 3) at the end of each sentence, then complete it with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- 1 Sorry. I would have turned the music down if I had known you were trying to work. (turn, know) 3
- 2 When I ..... my cat, she ..... a loud purring sound. (stroke, make) 0
- 3 You ..... so much if you ..... all day looking at things to buy on your phone. (not want, not spend) 2
- 4 If I ..... her, I ..... her you're looking for her. (see, tell) 1
- 5 If that jacket ..... a bit cheaper, maybe I ..... it. (be, buy) 2
- 6 If we ..... that road, we ..... that amazing park. (not take, not discover) 3

5 Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

Last month my company ran an advert during the Superbowl. Our 30-second ad cost us a total of $5.1 million. If we <sup>1</sup> ..... had shown (show) the advert 24 hours earlier, it <sup>2</sup> ..... (cost) only $115,000, but do you know how many people watch the Superbowl each year? Roughly 100 million. And what <sup>3</sup> ..... (happen) when that many people <sup>4</sup> ..... (watch) your advert? Well, it's certainly good for business. If it <sup>5</sup> ..... (be) my decision, of course, I <sup>6</sup> ..... (prefer) not to pay $5 million for 30 seconds of TV. You know, there's a famous saying in advertising: half of all the money you spend is a total waste. But nobody knows which half. Anyway, our Superbowl advert is right here on our website. <sup>7</sup> ..... you ..... (like) to see it? Here, I <sup>8</sup> ..... (show) it to you.
