Organising the school charity event wasn't easy because our team was full of different personalities. Luckily, our team leader, Anna, was always so (1) _____ and positive, which kept us all motivated. Mark, on the other hand, was quite (2) _____ and always thought something would go wrong. The biggest challenge was our teacher, Mr. Harris. He was so (3) _____ that he wouldn't let us change the event date, despite the bad weather forecast. Thankfully, we had Kate, who is very (4) _____; she is never stressed and always finds a compromise. It was also great to have Tom on the team. He was very (5) _____ and spent his own money on decorations. In the end, we knew we could count on our plan because it was prepared by our most (6) _____ classmate, David.
