

Friends. Hello again! Vocabulary. Greetings

Teaching Notes

Learning outcomes

- to name and talk about characters
- to practise greetings and introductions

New language

Hi, What's your name? I'm (name), character names

Materials

pieces of card (optional)

Warm-up

- Wave to the class and say Hello. Encourage students to wave back and say Hello. Repeat, but this time say Hi.
- Greet a student with Hello, (name). Prompt the rest of the class to wave at him/her and say Hello, (name).
- Repeat with different students, alternating between Hello and Hi.
- Students practise saying Hello to one another in pairs.
- Do a mingling activity. Ask students to stand up and walk around. Students stop walking when you say Stop! They say Hello! to their nearest classmate.

Additional practice:

Workbook p. 4

1 Match.

- Revise the characters' names.
- Ask students to write answers, e.g. I - Misty.
- They compare answers in pairs.
- Check answers with the class.
- Ask, e.g. What colour is Misty's hair? Students reply in chorus, e.g. Yellow. Write an example sentence, e.g. Misty's hair is yellow, on the board and point out the way 's' is used to say that something belongs to someone.

2 Put in the correct order. Write.

- Remind students that the words are in the wrong order. Ask them to look carefully at the boxes.
- Write number 1 on the board and model the correct order: Hi, I'm Sam.
- Ask students to do the activity individually.
- Students reorder the words and write full sentences. Check answers together on the board.
- Draw attention to punctuation (capital letters, apostrophe in I'm, full stop).
- Ask students to read their sentences aloud in pairs: Hello, I'm Kate. / Hi, I'm Leo.
- Invite a few students to substitute their own names: Hi, I'm [Anna].

3 Ask your classmates. Complete the sentences.

- Remind students that they already know how to introduce themselves. Point to the example speech bubbles.
- Model the dialogue with one student: What's your name? - I'm [Anna].
- Ask students to walk around the class (or work in pairs) and ask four classmates.
- Students complete the sentences with their classmates' names.
- Monitor and check that they are using the full sentence, not just single words.
- Invite a few students to read their sentences aloud: I'm Max. I'm Kate...

- Hand a piece of card to each student. Show them how to fold it in half lengthways and write their name on it.
- Students stand the card on their desks. Call a volunteer to the front of the class. He / She says Hello, (name) to as many students as possible, reading the names on the cards.
- Ask students to turn their cards around and see if the student can remember the names.

Friends. Hello again! Language Focus 1. Numbers

Teaching Notes

Learning outcomes

- to count from one to ten
- to review giving and asking names

New language

one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten

Materials

flashcards (numbers one to ten)

1 Match the numbers with the words.

- Elicit the numbers in the activity. Count aloud together from 1 to 10.
- Say a number word (e.g. three) and ask students to point to the correct number in the picture.
- Model how to draw a line from the word to the number. Do the first one together (one – 1).
- Students continue matching all numbers with words individually or in pairs.
- Check answers together by counting 1–10 as a class.
- Call out numbers at random. Students show the correct number with their fingers.

Warm-up

- Say to a student Hi! What's your name? The student responds Hi! I'm (name).
- Encourage the student to ask his/her neighbour What's your name? and the second student to reply I'm ... Continue around the class.

2 Find the mistakes and write the words.

- Ask students to look at the words in the colorful circles.
- Explain that the words are spelled incorrectly. The first one, foup, is a mistake for four.
- Encourage students identify the mistakes in the words.
- Ask them to write the correct words.
- Check the activity as a class.

3 Count and write.

- Ask students to look at the pictures. Elicit what they see (apples, oranges and cakes).
- Encourage students to count the objects in each row. Once they've counted, they write the number word on the first line (four).
- Continue with other items (b and c), providing help as needed.

Additional practice:

Workbook p. 5

LEARN

- Each student writes numbers 1 to 10 in any order in their notebook, without showing anyone.
- Put students into pairs. Student A dictates his/her numbers while Student B writes. Then they swap roles. They check answers by comparing with their original list.
- Stronger students can write number words, rather than figures.

Friends. Hello again! Worksheet. Practice 1

Teaching Notes

Learning outcomes

- to practise asking and answering about age
- to revise numbers 1–10
- to develop speaking and writing skills

New language

*I'm ... (years old).
How old are you?*

Materials

coloured pencils / crayons

1 Draw candles on the cakes.

- Show the cakes and read the sentences together: I'm seven. I'm nine ...
- Ask students to count and draw the correct number of candles.
- Check answers by counting the candles aloud with the class.

2 Complete the dialogue.

- Point to the monsters and ask: Who is this? (Bluey, Pinky).
- Model the dialogue with a confident student:
 - Hello, Pinky!
 - Hello, Bluey!
 - How old are you?
 - I'm seven, and you?
 - I'm six.
- Ask students to complete the missing words in the speech bubbles.
- Practise the dialogue in pairs, then swap roles.

3 Draw candles and colour the cake.

- Ask: How old are you? Students answer with I'm ...
- Students draw the correct number of candles for their own age.
- Invite a few students to show their cakes and read their sentences aloud.

Warm-up

- Wave to the class and say Hello! How old are you? Encourage students to answer with a number.
- Revise numbers 1–10 with the class (counting fingers, clapping, etc.).
- Model the sentence: I'm seven. Students repeat in chorus and individually.

Additional practice:

Super Skills Book 2 pp. 4–5

- Ask one student: How old are you? – I'm seven.
- That student then asks the next: How old are you? – I'm six.
- Continue the chain until everyone has asked and answered.
- At the end, the whole class repeats: We are ... (seven, six, nine ...).

Friends. Hello again! Song. Alphabet song

Teaching Notes

Learning outcomes:

- to sing a song
- to practise saying the letters of the alphabet

New language:

Sing with me, We can sing the alphabet, What's before/after ('N')?

Materials:

alphabet cards: one for each letter of the alphabet (write the capital letter on one side and the lower case letter on the other)

Warm-up

- Call to the front four students whose names start with the first four letters of the alphabet. If this sequence is not possible, any four-letter sequence in the alphabet will do, e.g. D, E, F, G.
- Stand the students in alphabetical order according to the first letters of their names. Say their names, repeating the first letter, e.g. Anna, A; Borys, B.
- Tell students the lesson is about the alphabet.

Additional practice:

Workbook p. 6

Audio

Video

1 Listen and sing.

- Teach the letter names in English, using the alphabet cards or writing letters on the board.
- Point to each letter in turn, saying the name for students to repeat.
- Repeat two or three times, focusing on vowels and unusual letters such as J, K, Q and Y.
- Play the audio \(05\). Students follow the song.
- Play the audio again, in sections. Students repeat.
- Play the song video, pausing for students to repeat.
- Use the karaoke version of the audio \(06\) or video for students to sing in groups.

2 Play the alphabet game.

- Stick the alphabet cards (capital letters) on the board or write the alphabet from start to finish. Point to letters and say, e.g. B is after A. C is after B. D is after C. Ask What's after D? Ask similar questions about different letters. Present before and What's before ...? in the same way.
- Students work in pairs. They ask and answer about the letters, using the alphabet.
- Monitor to check pronunciation. Also ask What's after/before ...?
- Ask volunteers to come to the board and write the lower case letters next to / below the capitals.

3 Complete the alphabet.

- Point to the worksheet. Remind students that some letters are missing.
- Ask them to look carefully and write the missing letters.
- Monitor and help weaker students by prompting with the alphabet song.
- When finished, read the alphabet together in chorus from A to Z.
- Invite volunteers to come to the board and write the missing letters.

- Make groups of six students.
- Students arrange themselves in alphabetical order, according to the first letter of their names. Encourage them to ask What's your name? and What's before/after ...? as they decide where to stand.
- Ask each group to check that another group is in the correct order.
- Put students into new groups of six and repeat.

Friends. Hello again! Language Focus 2. Colours

Teaching Notes

Learning outcomes

- to recognise and say some colours
- to review spelling of the colours
- to talk about possession using 's

New language

yellow, red, orange, purple, green, blue, ball, car, bus, robot, bear, plane, (Ron)'s book is (red).

Materials

coloured pens and pencils

Warm-up

- Write the order of 4-5 letters from the alphabet on the board (e.g. E, F, G, H, I).
- Point to the letters and ask: What letters are these?
- Ask students to say which letter goes next (letter J).
- Students answer chorally.
- Write three letters from the alphabet with one missing (e.g. S, _, U). Ask students to say which letter is missing (letter T).

Additional practice:

Workbook p. 7

1 Match.

- Ask students to look at the picture of the coloured pencils and the words below.
- Explain that they need to match each pencil to its correct colour name.
- Focus students on the example (a blue pencil that matches with the word blue).
- Ask students to draw a line from each pencil to the corresponding word. Help students if needed.
- Check answers as a class.

2 What colour is the toy? Choose and write.

- Ask students to look at the picture of toys. Elicit the names of the toys (ball, car, bus, bear, robot, plane).
- Focus students on the sentences next to the pictures.
- Explain that they need to identify the colour of each toy and then choose the correct word from the two options given.
- Students write the correct colour word.
- Go through each toy, asking students what colour it is.
- Check answers as a class.

3 Look and say.

- Tell students to look at the picture of the children and their books.
- Help students identify the children by name: Ron, Sue, Bob, and Ann.
- Focus students on the speech bubble showing an example Ron's book is red.
- Ask students to make similar sentences for the other children: Sue's book is green, Bob's book is blue, and Ann's book is orange.
- Encourage students to say the sentences out loud to practise speaking.

- Say, e.g. Find a blue bag. Demonstrate by pointing to / touching someone's bag of the correct colour and say (Name)'s bag is blue.
- Repeat with different colours. Students can move around the room to find the bags, or do this from their seats. Encourage the students to make a sentence with 's when they find the bag.
- Students can also play in pairs.

Friends. Hello again! Worksheet. Practice 2

Teaching Notes

Learning outcomes

- to revise numbers 1–6
- to learn/revise colours
- to practise asking and answering about favourite colours

New language

What's your favourite colour?

My favourite colour is ...

Numbers 1–6 (revision).

Colours: red, blue, green, yellow, purple, orange

Materials

coloured pencils / crayons,
coloured flashcards
(optional)

1 Colour the balloons.

- Point to the balloons. Explain that each balloon has a number, and students must colour it according to the code
- Model one example on the board: 1 is red. Colour it red.
- Students colour the rest.
- Check together: say 2 is blue, 3 is green and students repeat in chorus.

2 Read and match. Say.

- Point to the numbers and colour words. Read them aloud with the class.
- Ask What colour is 3? → 3 is blue.
- Model matching by drawing a line between 3 and “blue.”
- Students complete the rest individually, then check in pairs.
- Read aloud as a class: 1 is red. 2 is yellow. 3 is blue.

3 Answer and colour.

- Ask What's your favourite colour? → My favourite colour is ...
- Tell them to colour the balloon with their favourite colour.
- Invite volunteers to show their balloons and say: My favourite colour is ...

Warm-up

- Greet the class and ask: What colour is this? while showing a flashcard.
- Revise colours by pointing to objects in the classroom (e.g. The board is green. The door is brown.).
- Count together from 1 to 6, then ask students to show with fingers.
