

Let's Catch the Easter Bunny!

Sammy is excited that Easter is almost here! This year will be different because Sammy plans to catch the Easter Bunny. "I'll stay up all night if I have to," Sammy thought.

First, he paints eggs and bunnies on a small box. Second, Sammy attaches a string to the box. He arranges carrots and treats near the box for the bunny to enjoy. He makes the box comfortable by adding soft blankets. Last, Sammy sets up his bunny trap in the garden.

The night before Easter, Sammy grabs his flashlight and waits by the window. He wants to see the Easter Bunny! He waits a very long time but has trouble staying awake. He falls asleep, still holding the flashlight in one hand.

The morning sun wakes Sammy up and he quickly remembers his mission. He rushes to the garden. He laughs out loud when he sees his trap caught something! Sammy slowly lifts the box but the box is empty. He feels disappointed. The Easter Bunny got away!

Then, he looks around the garden and notices many colorful eggs and treats! There is also a chocolate bunny with a note that says, "Better luck next time! Thank you for the carrots. - E.B". Sammy smiles.

Sammy grabs his chocolate Easter Bunny and heads back inside. Even though he didn't catch the Easter Bunny, he learns an important lesson. He realizes that he can't always get exactly what he wants, and that's okay. Some things are more special when they are out of reach.
