Mr and Mrs Green live in a lovely yellow house next to a small park. They have a son named Tom and a daughter named Lily.

One day, Tom and Lily ask their parents, 'Can we get a pet?'

Later, while walking in the park, they see a small dog. It's all alone and looks cold.

'Let's help him!' says Tom.

Lily gives the dog some water, and together they take him home.

'Can we keep the dog?' they ask. 'We can feed him, walk him in the park, and wash him too!'

Mr and Mrs Green smile. 'Yes, you can,' they say, 'but don't forget your promise!'

Tom and Lily are very happy. They name the dog Lucky. Every day, they give Lucky some meat and vegetables. They play with him in the park and wash him on rainy days.

Lucky isn't just a pet – he's part of the family.
