The Ancient Scythians

The Scythians were an ancient civilization. They lived in what is now Ukraine more than 2,500 years ago. They didn't build cities, but they moved across the steppe with their families.

The Scythians didn't invent writing, so we don't have books about their life. That's why much of their history is still a mystery. But there are many things left after them – gold, clothes, and art. The Scythians were strong, brave, and very clever.

1. The Scythians lived 2,500 years ago.
2. They lived in _____.
3. The Scythians travelled across _____ with their families.
4. They didn't _____ writing.
5. This civilization was _____ and very clever.
