

Scotland

Ivasyk-Telesyk

An old man and an old woman live near a river. They have no children.

The Snake catches Ivasyk and takes him to her house. Ivasyk is very scared.

The old man makes a little boy from wood. The boy comes to life and his name is Ivasyk-Telesyk.

Ivasyk tricks the Snake and pushes her into the oven. He runs away and climbs a tree.

Ivasyk goes fishing on the river every day. His mother calls him home.

Geese help Ivasyk fly home. His parents are very happy.

A bad Snake hears the mother's voice. She tries to copy it.

Kotyhoroshko

A man and a woman have seven sons and one daughter. The six oldest sons go to work in the field and ask their sister to bring some lunch.

A strong Snake tricks the sister and she comes to his house. The Snake takes the sister.

The six brothers go to find their sister but the Snake beats them and puts them into a deep prison.

The youngest boy finds a pea that grows into a big plant. One pea rolls away. He catches and eats the pea. The boy becomes strong. People call him Kotyhoroshko.

Kotyhoroshko

Kotyhoroshko makes a strong *mace and goes to the Snake's yard. He fights the Snake and beats him.

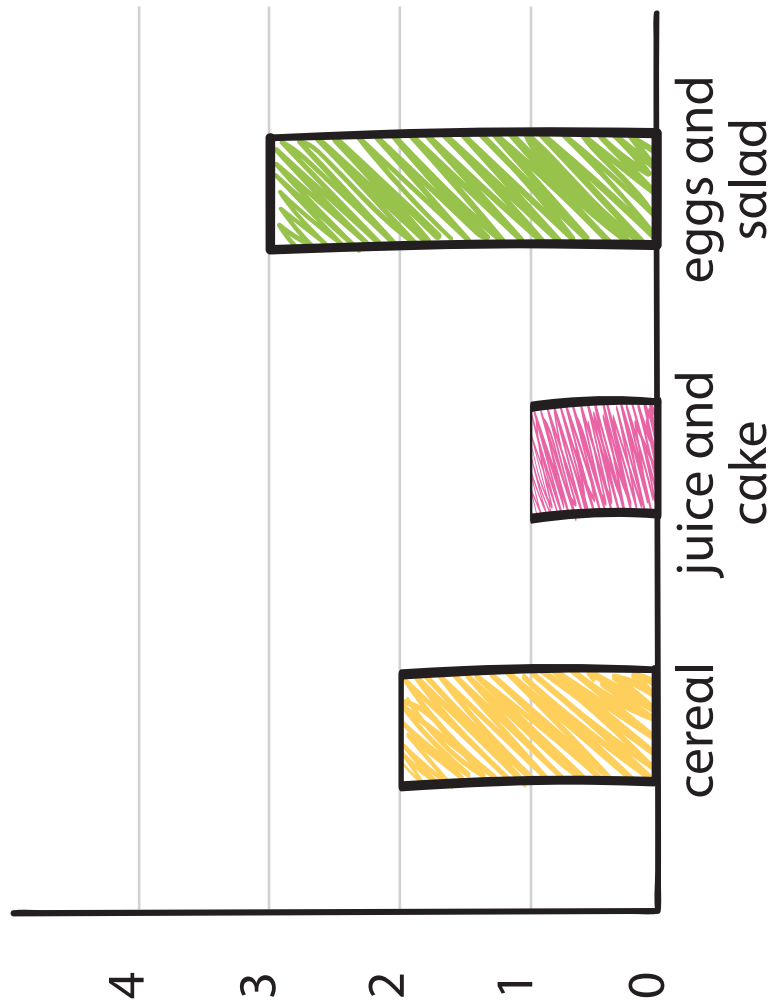

*mace -

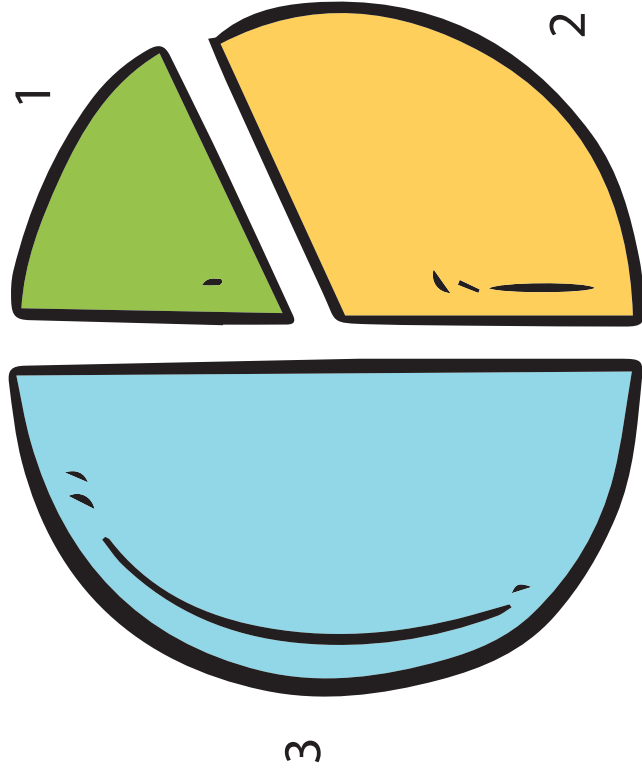

Kotyhoroshko saves his brothers from the prison. The Snake steals their sister again and flies away with her.

Kotyhoroshko follows the Snake into the underworld and defeats him again. He brings all his brothers and sister home. Everyone is happy.

What do you have for breakfast?

What do you have for breakfast?

- cereal
- eggs and salad
- juice and cake