Magic Garden

One sunny afternoon, Emma and Gary go for a walk in the park. They find a shining globe and a tablet near the path. When Emma touches the globe, a magical door appears on the screen. They see a small fairy who says, 'Can you save the Magic Garden? Someone stole the magical sunlight, and the fruits are losing their colours without it. Let's play the Rebus game and solve three rebuses.' The children go inside the door and see a beautiful garden full of fruit. Tiny fireflies are dancing around them.

- 1 mango
- 2 'I am bright and round. You can squeeze me to have some fresh juice.' — orange
- 3 pear

The trees are becoming light and colourful again. Emma and Gary understand the true magic: working together and learning new things bring magic into the world.

Secret Code in a Bottle

One day, Anna and Marta go to the cinema. They watch a film about a brave captain. He sails his big ship across the wide ocean. The captain wants to find an old castle on an island. There are colourful fish and beautiful landscapes.

The captain finds a piece of paper in a bottle.

There's a secret code! He needs to break the code to find the castle.

'Where the waves touch the beach, look for the next key.'

When the captain breaks the code, Anna says, 'This captain is so brave.' Then, he says the words that Anna and Marta never forget, 'A brave heart can sail any ocean.'
